

Modulo Jean Monnet

Food Security and Climate Change: the EU and Global Food Governance

Course: Tuesday 16.45-18.15; Friday: 8.45-10.15

(<http://www.scipol.unipg.it/corsi-di-studio>)

Timing of the course and teachers:

1. Luca Pieroni, Food Politics: an Overview (09/03/2021)
2. Lorella Tosone, What is Food Security? The many dimensions of a concept (12/03/2021)
3. Lorella Tosone, Global Food Governance from the International Institute of Agriculture to the World Food Programme (16/03/2020)
4. Donatella Lanari, Feeding the World: can we feed 9 billion people? (19/03/2021)
5. Melcior Rosselló Roig, The Green Revolution Controversy (23/03/2021)
6. Andrea Marchini, The agricultural business enterprise between food and health? (26/03/2021)
7. Amina Maneggia, The Paris Agreement on Climate Change and sustainable food systems (13/04/2021)
8. Roberto Cippitani, Is there a right to food? The case of Hunger-Free Latin America and the Caribbean Initiative (15/04/2021)
9. Amina Maneggia, The right to food and the impact of climate change on its realization (20/04/2021)
10. Melcior Rosselló Roig, Farming, the environment, climate change and water (23/04/2021)
11. Luca Pieroni, The Politics of Obesity (27/04/2021)
12. Anna Baldinetti, The 2007-2008 World Food Crisis and the Arab springs (30/04/2021)
13. Donatella Lanari, Food insecurity and climate change as determinants of international migration flows (04/05/2021)
14. Andrea Marchini, Agricultural commodities and futures markets: interactions with food security (07/05/2021)
15. John Dunne, The consequences of the World Food Crisis in Europe: migration flows and instability in the MENA region (11/05/2021)
16. John Dunne, In search of a strategic vision: is there a EU model of food security governance? (14/05/2021)