

Modulo Jean Monnet

Food Security and Climate Change: the EU and Global Food Governance

Course: Wednesday 16.45-18.15; Thursday: 8.45-10.15

1. Luca Pieroni, Food Politics: an Overview (02/03/2022)
2. Lorella Tosone, What is Food Security? The many dimensions of a concept (04/03/2022)
3. Donatella Lanari, Feeding the World: can we feed 9 billion people? (09/03/2022)
4. Lorella Tosone, Global Food Governance from the International Institute of Agriculture to the World Food Programme (10/03/2022)
5. Andrea Marchini, The agricultural business enterprise between food and health? (16/03/2022)
6. Melcior Rosselló Roig, The Green Revolution Controversy (17/03/2022)
7. Roberto Cippitani, Is there a right to food? The case of Hunger-Free Latin America and the Caribbean Initiative (23/03/2022)
8. Matteo Marchisio, Chinese Food Security Strategy (24/03/2022)
9. Amina Maneggia, The right to food and the impact of climate change on its realization (30/03/2022)
10. Melcior Rosselló Roig, Farming, the environment, climate change and water (31/03/2022)
11. Mary E Footer, Food security and climate change: approaches, actors, and issues (06/04/2022)
12. Mary E Footer, Climate change and sustainability: the trade nexus (07/04/2022)
13. Donatella Lanari, Food insecurity and climate change as determinants of international migration flows (04/05/2022)
14. Andrea Marchini, Agricultural commodities and futures markets: interactions with food security (05/05/2022)
15. John Dunne, Migration and conflict (11/05/2022)
16. John Dunne, Climate change, migration, conflict and food security (12/05/2022)