

Modulo Jean Monnet

Food Security and Climate Change: the EU and Global Food Governance

Course: Tuesday 14.45-16.15; Thursday: 16.45-18.15

1. Luca Pieroni, Food Politics: an Overview (21/02/2023)
2. Melcior Rosselló Roig, Farming, the environment, climate change and water (28/02/2023)
3. Melcior Rosselló Roig, The Green Revolution Controversy (02/03/2023)
4. Lorella Tosone, What is Food Security? The many dimensions of a concept (07/03/2023)
5. Lorella Tosone, Global Food Governance from the International Institute of Agriculture to the World Food Programme (09/03/2023)
6. Amina Maneggia, The right to food and the impact of climate change on its realization (14/03/2023)
7. Amina Maneggia, Food security and climate change: approaches, actors, and issues (16/03/2023)
8. Sabrina Brizioli, Is there a right to food? The case of Hunger-Free Latin America and the Caribbean Initiative (21/03/2023)
9. Sara Caria, An empirical approach to food assimilation processes. A comparative analysis of blending and segregating social dynamics in Europe and America (23/03/2023)
10. Andrea Marchini, The agricultural business enterprise between food and health? (28/03/2023)
11. Andrea Marchini, Agricultural commodities and futures markets: interactions with food security (30/03/2023)
12. Donatella Lanari, Feeding the World: can we feed 9 billion people? (18/04/2023)
13. John Dunne, Migration and conflict (20/04/2023)
14. John Dunne, Climate change, migration, conflict and food security (27/04/2023)
15. Donatella Lanari, Food insecurity and climate change as determinants of international migration flows (02/05/2023)
16. Luca Pieroni, Why food remittances matter? (04/05/2023)