

ESIL SUPPORTED CONFERENCE

New Technologies and International Legal Accountability

22–23 October 2026

Perugia, Italy

22 OCTOBER

Palazzo dei Priori

Sala dei Notari • Piazza IV Novembre

23 OCTOBER

Dept. of Political Science

University of Perugia • Via Pascoli • Room 1

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Philippa Webb

University of Oxford
Opening Keynote Address

Marco Roscini

University of Westminster
Concluding Keynote Address

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Emanuele Cimiotta

Benedetto Ponti

Nicholas Tsagourias

INFO & REGISTRATION

newtechila@gmail.com

Attendance is free of charge. Registration is mandatory both for in-person and online attendance. To register click here.

22 October 2026

1:00 PM Welcome Light Lunch

2:00 PM Opening Addresses

Vittoria Ferdinandi, Mayor of Perugia
Massimiliano Marianelli, Rector, University of Perugia
Enrico Carloni, Head, Dept. of Political Science

2:15 PM Welcome Remarks

Emanuele Cimiotta, University of Perugia
Benedetto Ponti, University of Perugia
Nicholas Tsagourias, University of Sheffield

OPENING KEYNOTE ADDRESS

2:30 PM Philippa Webb
University of Oxford

PANEL 1 International Regulation

3:00 PM – 4:30 PM

CHAIR Alessandra Gianelli Sapienza University of Rome

Law Enforcement and National Security: What Difference in "Cyberspace"

Pål Wrangé
University of Stockholm

Securing Accountability for the Use of LAWS: Interpreting 'Context-Appropriate Human Judgment and Control' through the IHL Duty to Take Precautionary Measures

Eleonora Branca
University of Verona

When States are Silent: Transnational Legal Process and the Regulation of AI-driven Cyber Operations in the Absence of Explicit Practice

Ekaterina Martynova
HSE University of Moscow – UNIDIR

Between Naming and Norming: Public Cyber Attribution as Legal Interpretive Practice and Its Impact on International Law Development

Goran Sandić
University of Belgrade

4:30 PM COFFEE BREAK

PANEL 2 International Dispute Settlement

5:00 PM – 6:30 PM

CHAIR Russell Buchan University of Reading

Alternative Dispute Resolution and New Technologies

Antonio Segura-Serrano
University of Granada

The ICJ as a Legal Venue for the Governance of Cyberspace: Has the Time Come for a New Advisory Opinion?

Marco Dimetto
University of Padua

Investor-State Arbitration as a Vehicle for State Accountability in Cyberspace: Promises and Pitfalls

Harriet Moynihan & Daisy Peterson
University of Oxford

From Black Box to Bench: Who Judges Cyber War?

Ramdhass Perumal & Naman Rathore
University of Bhopal

23 October 2026

PANEL 3 Individual Criminal Responsibility

9:00 AM – 10:30 AM

CHAIR Marko Milanovic University of Reading

The Criminal Accountability Gap: Mens Rea and Algorithmic Decision Support

Yuval Shany

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Artificial Intelligence and Individual Criminal Responsibility: A Paradox or a Possibility?

Milena Sterio

Cleveland State University

Disruptive Cyber Operations as War Crimes Under the Rome Statute: Obstacles and Pathways to Prosecution

Giacomo Biggio

University of Bristol

Cyber-Enabled Core Crimes Under the Rome Statute: A New (or not) Quiz for Interpretation

Yaroslav Halieiev

University of Tartu

10:30 AM COFFEE BREAK

PANEL 4 European Union Law

11:00 AM – 12:30 PM

CHAIR Ramses Wessel University of Groningen

Attributing Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference (FIMI) Under EU Law: The Cyber Diplomacy Toolbox and Beyond

Johanna Kulesza

University of Lodz

AI-Powered Surveillance Systems and EU Data Protection Law: Rethinking the National Security Exception

Maria Tzanou

University of Sheffield

Wired at Sea: Subsea Cables and the European Union's Cyber Security

Giovanni Parente

University College Dublin

The Limits of the EU AI Act in Addressing Malicious AI Use by Non-State Actors

Francesca Tassinari & Julia Castro John

University of the Basque Country / Université Panthéon-Assas

CONCLUDING KEYNOTE ADDRESS

12:30 PM

Marco Roscini

University of Westminster

1:00 PM Closing Remarks

Emanuele Cimiotta (University of Perugia) · Nicholas Tsagourias (University of Sheffield)

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Emanuele Cimiotta

Benedetto Ponti

Nicholas Tsagourias

INFO & REGISTRATION

newtechila@gmail.com

Attendance is free of charge. Registration is mandatory both for in-person and online attendance. To register click here.